

Constitution

Ohio Association of Agricultural Educators (OAAE)

Article 1-Name and Affiliation

Section 1: The name of this organization shall be the Ohio Association of Agricultural Educators (OAAE)

Section 2: The Ohio Association of Agricultural Educators is affiliated with Ohio Association for Career & Technical Education (OACTE), Association for Career & Technical Education (ACTE) and the National Association of Agricultural Educators (NAAE).

Article II-Purpose and Objectives

Section 1: The purpose of this association shall be:

- A. To assume and maintain an active state leadership in the promotion of agricultural education.
- B. To bring together all agricultural educators through membership in a state organization devoted exclusively to their interests.
- C. To serve districts and/or county organizations of agriculture education in the solution of their problems.
- D. To cooperate with other career, technical and agricultural professional organizations.

Section 1: The mission of the organization is to provide a supportive network and professional development for the continuous improvement of Agriculture Educators. This will be done through:

- A. Enhancing communication regarding member services and OAAE activities.
- B. Maintaining interactive and continuous legislative involvement.
- C. Providing quality professional development for the professional and technical improvement of agricultural educators.
- D. Recognizing and promoting accomplishments and best practices.
- E. Reviewing, defining and adopting district, state and national initiatives.

F. Serving all Ohio Agricultural Educators as members.

Section 2: The objective of the Delegate Council shall be:

- A. To plan and conduct an educational leadership program which will achieve the objective of the OAAE.
- B. To assist in the planning and conducting of a statewide conference for the professional and technical improvement of agriculture educators.
- C. To review, define and adopt policies and/or activities on the district and/or state levels.
- D. To plan and direct the activities of the district and/or county organizations.

Section 3: The objective of the Executive Committee shall be:

- A. To act on behalf of the OAAE when immediate action is required and when conditions make it either impossible or inconvenient for the entire OAAE Delegate Council to convene and make decisions.

Article III-Membership

Section 1: Membership shall be limited to Secondary, Adult and Post Secondary Educators, Agriculture VEPA contacts, State Teacher Education Staff, State Ag. Ed. Staff and Agricultural Education majors enrolled in teacher-preparation programs.

Section 2: The membership year shall extend from July 1 of one year until June 30 of the following year. Membership shall begin at the time of payment of dues or authorization for payroll deduction and shall end on June 30. Policy will be set by the Delegate Council as to the last collection date for the membership year.

Article IV-Officers and Duties

Section 1: The officers of the OAAE shall consist of President, President Elect, Secretary, Treasurer, Sentinel, Legislative and the immediate retired President.

Section 2: The President Elect shall be elected each year at the annual conference and serve until the next annual summer conference.

Section 3: The Treasurer, Legislative, Secretary and Sentinel shall be elected every three years at the annual conference and serve for a period of 3 years.

Section 4: The Executive committee shall fill any vacancy occurring in the association's offices other than the presidency.

Section 5: If the Presidency should be vacant, the President Elect shall fill the office immediately. The Executive Committee shall fill the office of President Elect.

Section 6: All Officers shall be Agricultural Educators at the time of the election or appointment.

Section 7: Any person elected or appointed to serve in a capacity to represent OAAE must be a dues paying member, including all district officer positions.

Section 8: Duties of the Officers

- A. President- The president shall preside at all meetings of the association. He or she shall appoint the chairman and members of all standing committees and of any special committees deemed necessary by the Executive Committee. In the absence of the president, the president elect will discharge the duties of the president. The president will help to establish goals, a calendar of events, an agenda for the meetings and serve on numerous committees. The president will also attend all NAAE functions and assist the president-elect on the Summer Conference.
- B. President Elect-The President Elect shall supervise all committees and coordinate the program of activities. He or she shall assume the duties of the presidency during the president's temporary absence. The President Elect will also develop a years of service and retiree list and order the pins and plaques to be presented at the summer conference.
- C. Secretary- The secretary shall issue all notices of meetings, conduct correspondence of the association and keep a record of all proceedings of the association. The secretary will also take minutes at each meeting, prepare the agenda with the help of the president, and invite guests to the summer conference.

D. Treasurer- The treasurer shall assist with the membership drive, keep a roll of members, collect any money that is due to the association and shall have custody of all funds of the association in a bank in the name of the Ohio Association of Agricultural Educators. The treasurer will also work closely with the NAAE and the OACTE, make reservations and pay registration fees for the NAAE events and pay all memberships to organizations and bills in a timely manner.

E. Sentinel- The sentinel shall conduct devotional services at each session of the annual conference and at all meetings of the Executive Committee and Delegate Council. The Sentinel is also responsible for gathering door prizes for the conference.

F. Past President- The past president shall serve in an advisory capacity.

Article V-Finances

Section 1: The treasurer shall keep the association accounts in such a manner that they may be audited at any time. Regular audits shall be conducted at the summer conference and at the time the treasurer's records are transferred to the new treasurer.

Section 2: The treasurer shall pay all expenses approved by the OAAE membership and/or the Delegate Council.

Section 3: The treasurer shall submit a budget proposal annually at the March Delegate Council Meeting to be approved at the Summer Conference.

Article VI-Districts

Section 1: The state shall be divided into districts according to the map accompanying this constitution. There shall be a Chairman, Vice Chairman, Membership Chairman, Mentorship Coordinator, CDE Coordinator, Camp Board Representative, and a Secretary-Treasurer for each district. The district officers shall be elected by the teachers of the respective districts to serve 2 years. In the event that the chairman and/or other officers should relinquish their offices, their replacements shall be elected at the next district meeting. Other officers may be elected at the discretion of the respective districts.

Section 2: The duties of the officers of the districts shall be those commonly ascribed to such officers.

Section 3: Changes in district boundaries may be made by a three-fourths vote of the Delegate Council.

Section 4: Odd numbered districts shall elect officers in odd numbered years and even numbered districts shall elect officers in even numbered years.

Article VII-Executive Committee

Section 1: The Executive Committee shall consist of the OAAE officers.

Section 2: The Executive Committee shall meet at any time deemed necessary by the president or any other two or more officers. The Executive Committees powers shall be limited to acting only on business that cannot be brought before the entire Delegate Council due to inconvenience, time limitations or other reasons, which make such an assembly impossible.

Article VIII-Delegate Council

Section 1: The Delegate Council shall consist of:

- A. OAAE officers: President, President-Elect, Secretary, Treasurer, Sentinel, Legislative, and Past President
- B. Liaisons will be appointed by the President for the following:
Mentorship, Membership, Legislative, Foundation, Camp Board, Alumni, CDE
- C. District Chairpersons of Ag Ed Districts
- D. State Pathway Chairpersons of Ag Ed Districts.
- E. Representatives of: CTPD Coordinators, Teacher Educators, Post-Secondary Educators, State ODE Ag Ed Staff

Section 2: The Delegate Council shall meet at least 3 times a year. One meeting shall be held at the time of the annual OAAE summer conference and the other meetings will be held as determined by a majority of the Executive Committee.

Article IX- Pathway Areas

Section 1: Teachers in each pathway shall elect representatives to OAAE Delegate Council on a biennial basis.

Section 2: Agribusiness and Production Systems representative 1, Food Science & Technology/Biotechnology and Natural Resource Management shall elect one representative to Delegate Council on the odd numbered years. Agribusiness and Production representative 2, Agriculture and Industrial Power Technology, Horticulture and Animal Science & Management shall elect one representative to Delegate Council on the even numbered years. The elected representatives shall serve a term of two years on Delegate Council. Preference for representatives will be given to teachers from the Pathway.

Article X- Delegates to National Convention

Section 1: The maximum number of delegates to be sponsored by the OAAE shall be limited to the number of official delegates permitted by the National Association of Agricultural Educators.

Section 2: Delegates to attend the NAAE National Convention shall consist of the immediate past president, president, president elect, secretary, treasurer and sentinel. The remaining delegates shall be selected from the following group:

- A. Committee Chairpersons
- B. First year District Chairpersons
- C. First year Pathway Representatives
- D. Second year District Chairpersons
- E. Second year Pathway Representatives
- F. Other OAAE Members

Section 3: Sponsored delegates to the NAAE Regional Conference shall consists of the immediate past president, president, president elect, secretary, treasurer and sentinel. Additional delegates shall be selected in manner similar to the described in Article X, Section 2, with the exception that those members who desire to attend the National Conference but were not so designated shall be given priority to attend the Regional Leadership Conference.

Article XI-Voting Privileges at the Annual Summer Conference

Section 1: Any current dues paying member of the OAAE shall be entitled to vote at all business sessions during the summer conference.

Article XII-Conduct of Business

Section 1: All items of business must have been presented and received a majority vote at the District or Pathway level prior to the OAAE Delegate Council. The OAAE Delegate Council shall then determine the dispensation of each item. All items must be acted upon by the OAAE Delegate Council, OAAE Standing Committee or by the entire OAAE membership at the annual OAAE summer conference.

Section 2: Roberts Rules of Order shall govern the conducting of business.

Article XIII-Amendments to the Constitution

Section 1: This constitution may be amended by a 2/3 vote of all members present at the regular business session of the association at the annual summer conference. Proposed amendments must be submitted to the secretary in writing no later than the first day of the conference.

Revised 6/14

Officer Election Terms

Treasurer - 2016 - 2019

Legislative - 2014- 2017

Secretary 2017- 2020

Sentinel - 2018 - 2021